Mission

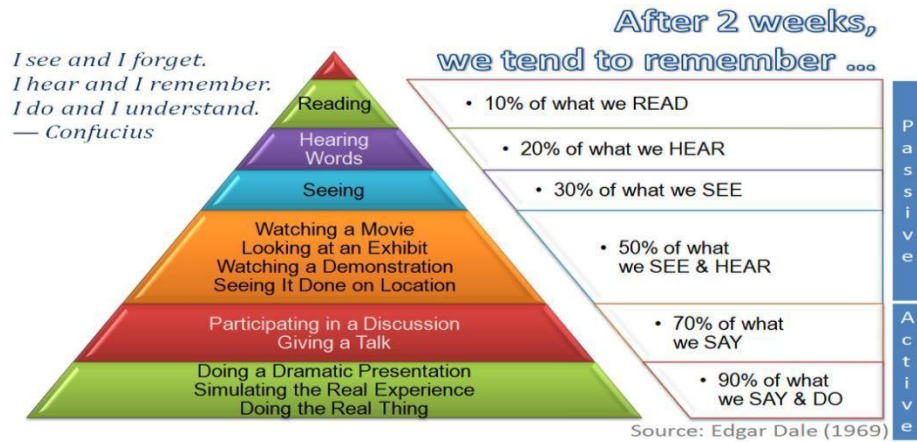

To help organizations build and maintain high performing teams, great leaders, realize strategies to boost productivity and to develop highly functioning individuals built to transform Africa, through Fun, Safe, & transformational programs.

Values

- Servant Leadership
- Integrity
- Community
- Fun

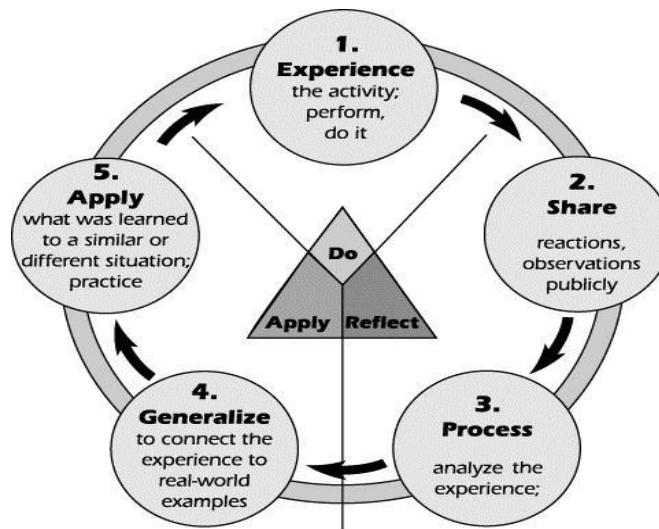

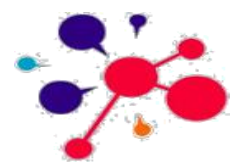

OUR TRAINING METHODOLOGY

Our methodology is drawn from Edgar Dales findings stated in his Cone of learning above. Noting that people get to retain 90% of what they say and do we can definitely prove that experiential learning is way more effective than the traditional passive forms of training hence guaranteed value for any corporate investment.

As much as we have concentrated on experiential learning, we are always open to partner with other companies or individuals who offer passive training, just to ensure that we concretize the learning and create lasting impact in the trainees' lives.

OUR APPROACH

Our approach involves strong team participation, and draws on our ability to bring on board a multidisciplinary team of facilitators that is experienced with great professional and technical skills.

In order for us to achieve a high quality output, we use a 3-phase approach as highlighted below:

I) PHASE I: PRELIMINARY REVIEW MEETINGS:

Pre-event assessment & review of relevant documentation and personalities to have a good understanding of the structure & culture of the organization.

ii) PHASE II: EVENT FACILITATION

Our team comprises of internationally certified facilitators running internationally accredited programs with a reputation of high quality work and depth of knowledge of undertaking the assignment.

With a minimum of 7 years of experience in this field, the facilitators have worked with thousand, organizations and individuals. They have extensive exposure to international best practices and are committed to help each team realize timely, responsive, and innovative solutions.

This can be conducted indoor sessions, outdoor sessions or even both indoor and outdoor sessions combined.

II) PHASE III: FINAL REPORT:

Based on the feedback collected during the pre-event assessment phase and the actual event, we prepare a comprehensive report that will capture all the necessary elements. We compile and analyze the overall progress of the key, deliverables once the ground work has been covered.
